“ We send our condolences on the passing of your mother. Rosemarie and John were close friends of Kathrine and John Maskulak. From before Jane and I married until the end of Kathrine’s life, Rosemarie was always there for Kathrine. Both women were retired RNs from Phoenixville, where they were close friends, and they moved to St. Petersburg, Florida, around the same time. The two spent many evenings together, took a road trip across the country together with their husbands, shared many Sunday dinners, and even played bingo together a few nights each month. They volunteered together at a hospital in St. Petersburg, and after Kathrine moved to Pensacola, both volunteered with the Navy and Marine Corps Relief Society, crocheting baby blankets and caps for layettes for new parents. Rosemarie made several trips to visit us in Pensacola after moving back to Pennsylvania. The two would talk for hours, drinking coffee while crocheting, or going to bingo together at the Moose Club during her visits. We all took a day trip to the Biloxi casinos once for a day of gaming. Your mother was always lucky. We can only imagine how much you miss her and know she will always be in our prayers.

“ Rose lived on the unit I worked when I was in activities. She and her roommate always kept me on my toes. They were like bickering sisters but yet they always looked out for each other. After I left activities, I ran into Rose in the hallway and she didn't recognize me at first. When I said my name her response was "my Sheryl?" and gave me a big hug . Lots of fun and good memories.
