

Roxana "Roxy" W. Scott

July 18, 1958 - August 9, 2020

Roxana "Roxy" W. Scott, age 62, devoted wife of Robert Scott, of Phoenixville, Pennsylvania, passed away peacefully on Sunday, August 9, 2020 at her home surrounded by her loving children. Born on July 18, 1958 in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, she was a daughter of Harry and Ruth Wilson.

Although Roxy spent many mornings helping milk the cows on her family's dairy farm before going to school, she was able to graduate valedictorian from Solanco High School, Quarryville, PA. She went on to earn a BS degree from Penn State University. After graduation she attended a Bible School in Austria where she became engaged to her husband of 37 years. Roxy's deep love and commitment to Jesus Christ was expressed through her devotion to her family and her unwavering support of her husband's ministry! Until brain cancer made it impossible, she had worked for many years as an Office Administrator for Liberty Property Trust in Malvern, PA. Roxy loved to hike and camp. Her artwork and calligraphy and beautiful singing voice have been a blessing to many!

In addition to her loving husband, Mrs. Scott is survived by her two sons, William Ritter (Mary) Scott, and Michael Douglas (Rachelle) Scott; Two daughters, Jessie Elizabeth (Greg) Gysberg, and Natalie Ruth (Daniel) Gilliss; and two sisters, Beverly Wilson, and Dana Custer.

Roxy's memorial service will be on Saturday, August 29 at 6 PM. In order to accommodate all who may want to attend, it will be held outside in front of Jerry and Joy Thompson's residence at Pickering Valley Golf Course. The address is 490 S Whitehorse Rd, Phoenixville, PA 19460. If weather is questionable, please visit the following site on "CaringBridge" to confirm the service time <https://www.caringbridge.org/visit/roxyscott>. “ It saddens me. I was searching for a way to say a little hello, because we worked at the Paoli Pancake House in the 1980's. She had a vibrant spirit, and I think a full life was ahead of her. -- Debbie
