“ When Russann would come to visit, you could count on three things to happen. First, you'd get goosed; second, she would clean something (say, some dishes that some lazy teenagers didn't feel like doing); and third, you'd smile. Russann was Janis Joplin music and cartwheels on roller skates. Russann was cruising High Street and flirting with boys. Russann was fiercely loyal and protective of those she loved. Russann was pierce-your-own-ears and my favorite secret keeper. She was brave and strong and loving. She was so easy to love. I count myself lucky to have known her. I have missed her so much over these last 26 years and now find myself with brand new grief for having lost her a new way. I know she's better now: free and comfortable and laughing, whole and awake.

Russann, I miss you still but know I will see you someday. Give Cath a goose from us. Love love love you.

“Russann was my very first friend in life which turned out to be my life long best friend. We were inseparable as kids (when we weren't grounded. lol) Even then we would beg each other's parents to let us out or to come over to the other's house.

We lived across the alley from each other. We met when I was 3 and she was 4. She was the sister I never had. She was my bestest friend, she was my family!

We did all kinds of things together, everyday things. We share so many untold stories and many wonderful memories that I will cherish until my dying day. Oh the sleepovers, every weekend, the bus trips to the mall, helping my Dad with his cardboard hauls. We shared everything together, we shared life <3<3<3. From our childhood, to our families, to our first boyfriends, our loves and our children. The good, the bad, the crazy, the unforgettable and the priceless. We've been thru it all. "There is a place in my heart that is totally for her only"

Brianna - You are the light of your mother's soul, NEVER forget that!!!!!! So take that light and shine on!!! I love you and am only a message or call away if you need anything.

Joan, Rusty, Roy, Aunt Linda, Renee, Jackie - My love and prayers are with you all at this time. I carry a very heavy heart but cannot bear what you must be going through. Russann is with Cathy, both earned their wings and are looking down on us from the heavens above. She is free, free to dance, to run, to laugh, to live in all of gods glory. Your family was always my second family and I love you, thank you so much for sharing it with me.

May all the wonderful memories comfort you during this difficult time.

*Love,
Lucretia*

“ I am Russann's cousin, Renee. I grew up with her and her siblings and was always VERY close with her. The past 26 years while she was in a coma, I could feel her presence missing at family functions. I've missed her so much. thought of her always. she always made us laugh. she used to do cartwheels in the yard. of course that made us worrywarts panic because we were afraid she'd get hurt. :-) I remember her laugh. I remember her smile. I remember how much she loved her baby girl. she was always holding her and so proud of her. Brianna used to twirl her mom's hair for comfort. Russann was very special and loved very much. I am so sad knowing she's gone from this earth, BUT I am sooo grateful that she's able to walk and run and smile and laugh and do cartwheels again, in heaven. she's even seen Jesus's face! :-) there's so much comfort in that. my love to aunt Joan, Bri, Roy, Rusty, Johnny, Lily. etc. but also to the other family and friends who loved her, as well. she will ALWAYS hold a very precious piece of my heart. my son met her one time, but knows a lot about her from all of our memories shared of her. he sends his love, too, (Mark Hunter Kowalsky.) love you all, always, Renee Norris

Brianna I didn't know your mother but I do know you. By knowing you your mother must have been a wonderful lady. Just remember now she is having the time of her life. What memories you have they will always be with you and she will be with you too. Just know god had blessed her and took her home. Bless you and the family love you all
