

Ryan Blakely Jacobs

April 12, 1981 - February 4, 2021

Ryan B. Jacobs, age 39, husband of Lindsay D. (Blank) Jacobs, of Collegeville, PA, passed away on Thursday, February 4, 2021 in Pottstown Hospital - Tower Health. Born on April 12, 1981 in Philadelphia, PA, he was a son of Jamie E. (Shillingford) Jacobs of Royersford, PA and the late John F. Jacobs.

Ryan was a graduate of Malvern Preparatory School, and studied Business at Penn State University. He spent 16 years employed at various locations of The Cheesecake Factory, finishing his career there as Assistant General Manager. His fondest memories took place and closest relationships formed at the Willow Grove location. He always said they were like family. For the past year, he has worked in Sales for Comcast Business.

Ryan was an avid golfer and crazy sports fan, recounting stats and talking sports with his buddies on a daily basis. He was a huge fan of the Philadelphia sports teams, including the Eagles, Sixers, Flyers, and Phillies. He enjoyed working out, hiking, biking, and taking trips to the beach. He loved when the family all gathered for their infamous family dinners, as a result he also acquired a love of cooking, while enjoying a glass of wine or drinking a Bud Heavy.

Ryan was his happiest during the last several years after marrying Lindsay and then having his daughter. His greatest accomplishment was becoming a Dad, and he cherished the time he had with Addie.

In addition to his wife and mother, Ryan is survived by one daughter, Addison Max Jacobs; and two siblings, Leah M. Jacobs of Royersford, PA and Christian F. Jacobs, husband of Kourtnei Jacobs of Rockton, PA.

Ryan and I went to the Phillies World Series parade together in 2008. He held my 2 year old son Abe on his shoulders the entire time while I had my 5 year old on my shoulders. It was immediately evident to me that Ryan had wonderful parental instincts. It makes me so sad that he will never get to enjoy another Philadelphia Championship parade, but it makes me even sadder that his daughter will never get to watch a parade on her daddy's shoulders. Ryan, you are gone too soon. I will miss you my friend! God bless you and your family.
