“ This is still one of my favourite photos showing Aunt Sal with her Sister Ann (my mum), and aunt Sals great niece Francesca and her new born great nephew Hohlden. I remember the day as mum had picked up Sally from Heathrow and stopped off in Essex (where I lived) on route back to Solihull to see her mum,. It was a lowly day and my feelings at the time was being able to get a photo of my children with my mum and Aunt Sal. She was always so kind and I couldn't have wished for a greater set of Aunts than Sally and Pat. We are missing her greatly and I'm going to miss our email catchups.

“ I met Sally at UUFP, Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Pottstown, in 1995. I knew at once she was a very special woman. She was the kindest woman I ever met. I'm glad I had the opportunity to share so many memories with her.

“ Sally Martin was the kindest, sweetest, most gentle soul I have ever met. Her dedication to the Labyrinth was phenomenal, and I will feel her presence, tomorrow, on the 2026 New Years Day Labyrinth at the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Pottstown. I am happy that we were able to get it organized this year and will do it in her memory.

“ I first met Sally in Thompson, Manitoba in the early 70's, when I was a student and summer worker at Inco. She was first, a friend of my parents, but, as an occasional babysitter, I got to know her better. Her love of music, inspired me as did her philosophy on Life. Over the years our physical paths only crossed occasionally but we swapped letters, Both of us being avid travellers we shared some great adventures of trips through Europe, those she'd done herself, and those I was doing or planning. She was my Favourite Aunt, even though we weren't related, my Nurse when I was struggling with cancer, my Musical Wikipedia and my Educator for alternate medical practices like Reiki. My Heart goes out to Scott and Chris and Families. We are only on this Earth for a short time. Sally made every day count. She will be missed.

“ *I am so sad. Sally was a special person and extraordinary friend. She was there for me when I lost my mother, and then several years after when I lost my daughter Lisa. We have such fond memories of our our time together in Medicine Hat and Edmonton; and our visits to England and Pennsylvania. Sally was the only person I knew who could be a comfort, no matter how far apart we were. My heart hurts for Chris, Scott and the family. Tight but gentle hugs to you all.
