I've known Sally since the late 50's when our family built a home one down from the Sykes's on Vincent Road where we all grew up. She was one of the sweetest, kindest women I have ever met. Heaven truly gained another angel. Sending deepest sympathies to all of you. Linda Benjamin Moyer ❤️

“ Mrs. Shaffer was a kind and wonderful woman. I am thankful for all the chats that we had while I delivered her mail. She was always there to turn my bad days around and make me smile and laugh. I will miss seeing her everyday, but I am glad I have those memories to look back on and that I was able to meet such a special person. Sending thoughts and prayers to her family.

“ Sally was such an inspiration to all who worked with her at the Phoenixville Hospital Thrift Shop.
There was not a piece of clothing that she could not mend and bring back to life.
She was my Monday morning pricing buddy and my knitting friend.
Sally you will be missed by all the volunteers.
Rest In Peace

“ I am very saddened to hear of Sally's passing. Sally and my Mom, Betty Koch were good friends when they worked at the Vale. When my Mom died in 2020 in the middle of Covid Sally called me and asked if she could come to the Mass and Burial since it was all private and I said absolutely. I send my condolences to Sally's entire family who she loved so much. Sally is now with the love of her life , her husband Charlie and may God grant her his most perfect peace. Sally was a truly wonderful friend who will be missed dearly. Sally was a true lady loved by everyone!

“ This news hits close to home & saddens me, but I knew how much Sally loved and missed her Charlie, so I'm happy that she is in his arms again. Through my childhood, I became close to each one of the Shaffer children at different stages of my life and Sally was a very caring Mother “to all”. I remember her making sure I wore a hat when it was cold out, or warming up a plate of food because I looked too skinny-LOL. She even provided motherly advice at times over boys (like when we'd follow the dek hockey clan ;) May She Rest In Peace !!
