“ I remember when Sandy told me her diagnosis and that she would be confined to a wheelchair. And the next words out of her mouth were, "that will not stop me". I don't think she ever missed any events until recently. She will always be loved and surely missed.

“ I am saddened to learn of Sandy's passing. I'll always remember her chastising me for smoking. And when I finally quit she would always tell me how proud she was of me and to keep it going. Sandy was a person of strong principle and total devotion. To her husband Joe, her children, and Rolling Thunder, Inc. She has earned her right to a heavenly welcome and peaceful eternal rest. God bless you and your family at this time of great sorrow. May she rest in peace.
