“ Sandy's mother Stella Arasin and my mother Anna Arasin were sisters . My first memories of Sandy where when Uncle Frank and Aunt Stella brought her on their visits to us at the family farm in Honey Brook . She was a sweet and kind child . I always looked forward to her visits .

Sandy and I had maintained contact over the years and she continued to be a kind and caring person . Though she will always be in my heart she will be missed.

“ I just learned of Sandy's passing. My deepest sympathy to Beth and family. I met Sandy when she lived across the hall from me at Kingsbury Condominiums in Malvern. The one word that comes to my mind when I think of Sandy is "Gracious." She had a huge heart and she always listened and cared about anything good or bad happening to me. I will always treasure my memories of Sandy, and the blessing of having her as a friend.

Most sincerely,
