“ Sally will always be a vivid light and memory to me. Sally was a wonderful teacher and inspiration for everyone at First Baptist. What faith and courage Sally had! No more pain, no more suffering, Sally. Our hearts and prayers are for your family and we will be here for them. In God's Love, Richard and Bonita Black

“ I have wonderful memories of Sally when we were growing up in Parkerford and the Parkerford Baptist Church. As kids all the Marsh clan was at her house or her kids at ours. She will be missed but the memories will last a lifetime.

“ I was so sorry to read of passing of Sally. It was a joy to know her from our time at First Baptist Church in Pottstown. This is often said, but most sincerely meant. As sad as here passing leaves the ones left behind, it is a blessing to know she is well, happy and rejoicing with her Savior. Our heart felt condolences.
