

Sarah G. Etzler

April 2, 1946 - December 10, 2022

Sarah G. (Rittenbaugh) Etzler, 76, of Phoenixville, passed away peacefully at home under hospice care, on Saturday, December 10, 2022. Born on April 2, 1946 in Phoenixville, she was a daughter of the late Mildred A. (Day) and William B. Rittenbaugh Sr.

Sarah was co-owner of J & S Deli, a butcher shop on Bridge Street in Phoenixville, prior to independently opening the Eagle's Nest, in Mont Clare, in 1993. A hard worker, she continued in the food service industry in her retirement, working at Wawa from 4 am until 11 am, even bringing over some of her former customers.

She enjoyed making sure her family was always taken care of. Although Sarah was very witty and hardheaded, she loved everyone unconditionally.

Sarah is survived by her daughter: Linda Fedchak, companion of Joe Blair, of Phoenixville; significant other: John Tomaski, of Phoenixville; grandchildren: Nicholas Fedchak, Catherine Blair, Christopher Herrmann and Amanda Blair; and great-grandchildren: Andrew Fedchak, Kellan Johnson, Michael Fedchak, Avayah Corsey and Kaitlyn Fedchak. preceded in death by her siblings: Elsie Johnson, Samuel Rittenbaugh, William "Eagle" Rittenbaugh and Clarence "Shorty" Rittenbaugh.

Some of my favorite and best Dell's days was 2 summers after college when I worked with Sally. Day shift, she on grill short-order grill and me "wing man" handling cold sandwiches. We were a good duo and had lots of laughs together. I can't eat rye toast to this day without remembering her, because she ate that at the start of so many shifts. (Got me hooked to this day.). Linda, I recall you as a little girl. Finally, because Sally is kinda a popular name, in the many years since those Dell's days she toiled, we'd refer to her as "Sally from Dell's," to distinguish her from routine Sally people. RIP and my condolences to the family.
