I cannot find the words to say how I feel. I got to know Sherry when she would come to visit her Mother. She was such a great person. She was always helping people who needed her and more. I am so happy I got to know her. As hard as it is for us left behind, we know Sherry is in a much better place. God will take care of her. My heart aches for the family who lost a wonderful sister and daughter. My heart weeps for you all.

“ I am very sorry for the loss of your daughter and sister. Loosing a loved one is never easy. Keeping in mind the scriptural thought at Acts 24:15 and Psalm 37:11,29 will help to sustain during this time of sorrow. May those happy memories of Sherry be with you always of joyful times spent together.
