

Sheryl Ann Sabbi

October 10, 1958 - February 3, 2021

Sheryl Ann Sabbi, age 62, of Phoenixville, PA, passed away on Wednesday, February 3, 2021 in the Phoenixville Hospital. Born on October 10, 1958 in Phoenixville, PA, she was a daughter of the late Edward G. Sr. and Kathryn (Kovacs) Sabbi.

Sheryl attended the Northern Chester County Technical School. She worked in the food service industry for most of her career. She cherished spending time with her Grandchildren. She enjoyed the beach, and especially liked to travel to Rehoboth Beach, DE with her Father. She enjoyed watching (most of) the hometown sports teams, especially the Phillies. She would cook meals and bake treats for her family, and was an avid gardener, crafter, and artist. She would also listen to classic rock and roll and was a fan of Jim Morrison and Pink Floyd to name a few.

Sheryl is survived by one daughter, Charie D., wife of Gabor "Gabe" Marosfalvi of Phoenixville, PA; two siblings, Kathryn A. "Kassie" Sabbi of Phoenixville, PA and Edward G. Jr., husband of Sue Sabbi of Phoenixville, PA; two granddaughters, Kayla M. and Kristina N. Marosfalvi. She was preceded in death by her fiancé Charles D. Osiol.

Funeral and burial services will be held privately at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made in her name to Parkside United Church of Christ, 505 Main Street, Phoenixville, PA 19460 or to the Brandwine Valley SPCA, 1212 Phoenixville Pike, West Chester, PA 19380. Condolences may be made by visiting www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com. Arrangements are being handled by the Campbell - Ennis - Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc., Phoenixville, Pennsylvania.

“ So so sorry. No words can take away your sorrows. RIP
First time I met her she bought a round of drinks. Bartender said they're on Sabbi, I said where's Sabbi she said right here. Black leather jacket, she slaps her thighs points here fingers and says yo.
Thought it was Pinky Tuscadero. RIP my sister💔
