“ I had the pleasure of being friends with Shirley from early childhood until adult hood even being in each other’s weddings. We had a lot of good times, riding bikes and riding around when we both learned to drive. I remember how we felt like big girls when we would take a taxi’s home from St. Ann's when it rained. Even though we lost touch at some point, I always knew that we could pick up the conversation as it was yesterday. I will miss you.

*Fly high my friend and Rest in Peace,
Your friend,
Joanne (Maher) Turner*
