“ *I first met Stephanie while dated her little sister Andrea and loved her smile. She was the first person to use Andrea's nick name around me and I loved it. We had our moments and they were of my making but she always full of life and loved her family, pets and animals. Stephanie welcomed my daughters into her life and treated them with love and respect welcoming them to call her "aunt Stephanie" too. She is now truly the "free spirit" we always thought she was and I hope she guides and protects us all as we continue on our journey in life. God bless you Stephanie Ann Young.
