Stephen (Steve) Allen Barnaik Jr., age 61, of Norristown, Pennsylvania, passed away on Tuesday, August 26, 2025 at Jefferson Einstein Montgomery Hospital in the company of his loved ones.

Born in Phoenixville on April 9th, 1964, he was the son of Mary (Heebner) Barnaik and the late Stephen A. Barnaik Sr.

Stephen was a graduate of Northern Chester County Tech (Class of 1982) where he studied Basic Electronics. He spent over 20 years working at Merck West Point where he was a member of the United Steelworkers Union. He also previously spent time working with Commodore and Gemplus. In his youth, he could be found skating with the Kimberton Rock and Rollers at the Kimberton Rollerama, setting the new high score on a pinball machine, drumming in the marching band, and bowling on the Junior League at Phoenix Lanes.

As an avid music fan, he loved going to concerts and musicals. He enjoyed spreading his love of music through karaoke performances and his time as a DJ with his own company: "Twilight Entertainment". Steve was an incredibly loyal Philadelphia sports fan his entire life, with his favorite team being the Philadelphia Eagles. Known for proudly sporting his Super Bowl Champions jacket, he was often the first person in any room to shout "GO BIRDS!" and was the leader of many Eagles chants, bleeding green everywhere he went. He also held a great love for amusement parks, gardening, and his beloved dog, Marley. Most importantly, he was a loving son, a devoted father, and a friend to all.

He was preceded in death by his father Stephen A. Barnaik Sr. He is survived by his children Samantha Marie, wife of Matthew Harris, and Stephen Patrick; his mother Mary Barnaik; his siblings Dawnette Sheplock (John), Bridgette Lightcap (Steve), and Shanon Barnaik (Sandi); along with several nieces and nephews.

“ Steve
I always liked the fact that you treated people at face value- you had no preconceived small town notions.
You continuously showed me respect on that rare occasion our paths would cross.
Even 30 years later when I returned back to a town I no longer recognize you were consistent in your actions and approach.
You were genuine to say the least.
It was a pleasure to know you Steven.
Lace up your skates and beat that high score at the Kimberton Rollerama “ Steve is going to be missed. He had so many stories to tell and would keep us laughing. From running track, turning down Paula Abdul, to dating Chubby Checker's daughter, skating, DJing, and so many more stories. We had so many nicknames for him because of all of the things he could do and did do but most of all he was part of our work family. This hit hard for us. He loved his daughter, son and his mom. Steve will be missed and for me will surely be remembered as his passing was the day of my last shift at Merck. And the "Steve Stories"...some of the best...to some seemingly SO unbelievable, stories that affected Steve both positively and negatively. But as the years went by and the stories were told again and again, I couldn't help but notice that the stories never changed...never varied...not even a little. Steve was as genuine and believable as anyone could ever be. The real deal. Will miss you brother.

Dawnette, my heartfelt condolences on the loss of your brother. I have fond memories of Stephen at Barkley Elementary, Jr High (especially the Drum Section), and occasionally at Morris St. playground. Prayers go out to you and your entire family.
