“ My memory of Stephen "Hondo" Haines was as a really cool kid. A tremendous natural athlete with unusual speed & quickness. He starred on our MDP basketball and baseball teams. Stephen got the nickname from his "mini-bike" in 7th grade or so.

Stephen was the MVP of the area CYO All-Star basketball game at Eisenhower HS in Norristown, in the spring of 1976. So fun to watch.

He had the coolest 1970 Dodge Charger, I never could quite get him to sell it to me! (not that I could afford $1,700 in 1981!).

I can recall shooting pool with him at his house, his father was a very kind and nice man.

I was saddened to learn of his passing, my sympathies to all of his friends and family and the K of P and MDP communities.

Thank you Ed. I remember everything you said. Stephen was my brother and a very close friend. I really miss him. I brought home a framed photo of Stephen's Charger yesterday (taken at Valley Forge Park).
