“ My heart goes out to you in the loss of your dear son. I was moved to offer my condolences because I too have a son and could not imagine the pain that must be felt upon the loss of a child. It is my hopes and prayers that you will find comfort in the God of the Bible that tells us that if we draw close to Him, He will draw close to us. - 2 Corinthians 1: 3&4. The Holy Scriptures tell us that "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it."- Psalm 37:29. Yes, we are promised that our dear loved ones lost in death shall arise to life again here on a restored paradise earth. -Acts 24:15. May we all live our lives in such a way that we will be there to greet them! It is my hopes that these words will prove to encourage and comfort you at this time. Respectfully submitted, Denise Brown neiceybrown-mail@yahoo.com

“ I am so deeply saddened to hear about your loss. Death is such an unnatural and unfair part of life. God's purpose was never for people to die. Romans 6:23 tells us, "The wages sin pays is death, but the gift God gives is everlasting life." God wants us to live forever on a perfect paradise earth. It will be a beautiful day when we will all be reunited with our loved ones.

“ When I think of Steve two things come to mind. Kindness and music as his heart was overflowing with both. I have many fond memories of Steve growing up and I am so very sad that he has left us at such a young age. My heartfelt condolences to his parents and sisters and friends. I remember how very much he loved his grandfather and think of him now with his grandfather and at peace. Steve will remain in the hearts of all those who had the pleasure of knowing this fine young man...God bless.
