“ To say this is late, is an understatement. I apologize for that and I am deeply saddened to learn of this. I often think of moments in my past including my senior year with Steve and our prom and the fun he and I had. I know words cannot change anything but I can say Steve will never be forgotten. God Bless you all!

“ My friend since Wooden Shoe! You were so much fun to be with as a child. Lots of play dates as little ones at your house and tons of playground hours spent at recess. I'm sure one of my first boyfriends too-at least for a day or two. :) Fond memories my friend. Rest in peace. -Kelly Robinson Jensen

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. Steve was my first love-he'll always have a special place in my heart. So, so many memories. ..we were inseparable. Prom, senior week, playing hookie (he corrupted me. I loved it), "teenage wasteland" and foghat (ha), his car blowing up on west bridge, valley forge and rocky, oh rocky! ! I'm so grateful for the time I had with him.

“ I am so sad and sorry for his family's and loved ones loss. Steve was my best friend for many years growing up, thru high school and even after. It is so wierd I just had pictures out a few days ago and one album is of our senior prom and the beach we went to with group of our close friends and I was just talking about him reminiscing our good times sories to my kids. I cant believe it. He was a awesome friend the best anyone could ask for he was a good hearted guy I could always trust and count on. He was so funny and energetic and truely a wonderful friend. He will be so missed and always in my heart and memories.

Sincerely,

I truely wish I could be there...it is so hard to believe or even imagine that he is gone. My heart aches not just for me, but for my sister Marykay and for my niece Julie. Steven was such a loving and giving person. He had such a special place in my heart and in his Uncle Fred's heart. He was the one who could ride roller coasters over and over with me :) I will always love him and miss him forever...I just can't believe he is gone. God bless you every day Steven...your pain is gone.

“ My heart goes out to your family. I am so sorry for your loss. What pain hurts worse than the pain of losing your child, losing Steve? Though the pain you're feeling must seem unbearable, please remember that you are not alone. Psalms 46:1 says, "God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." Pray to Him for strength. Weep to Him when there are no words. Listen to what one of the poets of the Bible said at Psalms 56:8, "You keep track of my wandering. Do collect my tears in your skin bottle." You see, God understands your pain and He cares for you very much (1 Peter 5:7). And He will really help you get through this difficult time (Isaiah 41:10).
