

Susan Paige Boyer

July 6, 1982 - August 16, 2025

Susan "Paige" (Junkins) Boyer, age 43, beloved wife of Garth R. Boyer, of Kimberton, Pennsylvania, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Saturday, August 16, 2025, at Reading Hospital after a long and courageous battle with cancer.

Born on July 6, 1982, in Phoenixville Hospital, she was the cherished daughter of Randy and Vicki (Harroff) Junkins.

A graduate of Conestoga Christian School in Morgantown, Paige went on to study at Bucks County Community College and Moore College of Art and Design before establishing herself as a self-employed interior designer. She was a gifted artist and designer, with a remarkable ability to take any space and transform it into something both beautiful and welcoming. Her clients trusted her vision and admired her creativity, as she poured her heart into creating spaces that reflected not just style, but warmth and life. Designing was not simply her profession-it was her passion, and a reflection of the beauty she carried within.

In addition to her talent and creativity, Paige was known for her extraordinary sense of humor. She had a quick wit and a gift for making people laugh, and those around her could always count on leaving her company with lighter hearts. Even in the midst of her cancer treatments, when she faced pain and exhaustion, Paige never lost her ability to share joy and laughter. Her humor drew people close to her, and it was one of the many ways she left an unforgettable mark on everyone she met.

Paige lived her life as a reflection of her deep Christian faith, always offering kindness, encouragement, and love. She was happiest at home surrounded by her family and friends. She found joy in being outdoors, staying active, and creating beauty wherever she went. At family gatherings, she often stepped outside to pick fresh flowers, thoughtfully arranging a special bouquet for each guest—small acts of love that left lasting memories.

Her love of cooking was another gift she shared freely, whether preparing meals for holidays or making everyday moments special. Christmas was her favorite time of year, and she delighted in decorating and preparing food to make it unforgettable for those she loved.

Paige and Garth met in third grade at Conestoga Christian School, where a childhood friendship slowly grew into a deep and enduring love. Their shared creativity and passion for their crafts inspired them to design and renovate a home together. They filled this space with laughter, love, and memories. Seven years ago, they welcomed their beloved daughter, Cassidy Rose, completing their joyful family of three. Paige's greatest joy and devotion was to her daughter. She poured her heart into creating a loving, safe, and faith-filled home, ensuring Cassidy always knew the depth of her mother's love. As a family, they cherished time spent together, making the most of every moment shared.

In addition to her husband, Garth, and her daughter, Cassidy Rose, Paige is survived by her parents, Randy and Vicki Junkins; her brothers, Ryan Junkins (Marie) and Todd Junkins (Juliet); her in-laws, Don and Mary Lou Boyer; sister in law, Tanya Stewart (Justin); brother in law, Ethan Boyer (Becca); brother in law, Justin Boyer (Steph). Also survived by her nieces and nephews Sydney and Cade Junkins, Ari Junkins, Peyton and Charles Stewart, Catie and Josh Boyer, Sam and Anna Boyer.

Relatives and friends are invited to celebrate Paige's life at her memorial service on Saturday, August 30, 2025, at 11:30 a.m. at Hopewell Church, 2286 Hopewell Road, Elverson, Pennsylvania, with Rev. “ Our hearts are broken. Paige was the most wonderful congenial loving person. She touched so many lives with here infectious laugh and sincerity. As a young newlywed She started as my assistant and developed into the most accomplished designer. We will forever miss her. Her love for Garth and Cassidy her Mother and Father family and friends is a great example of true unconditional love. May she rest in peace. May her guiding light forever remain. Jayne Aras

“ Dear Paige,

We love and miss you. I wish I could share our new morning glory photos with you. I'm glad you liked and adopted their "Keep Looking Up!" philosophy.

My favorite times were when you were a little girl and came to visit Grandma & Grandpa Harroff's house in Indiana. Grandma would let you run wild through her clothes closets, makeup and jewelry boxes. As you bounced down the steps of your fashion runway who knew what we'd see? And, after a quick bow and exit you'd run back up the stairs. Moments later, like a quick-change artist, you'd be wearing a whole new outfit with a beautiful smile of self-satisfaction. No wonder you grew up to be an artist.

I was always proud and happy to know you were making use of my drawing table and your Great-Grandpa's paint box. You felt the family visual art connection I always felt with you and your Mom.

*Love you forever!
