

Taylor E. Ogdin

December 6, 1964 - April 1, 2020

Taylor E. Ogdin, age 55, of Perryville, Maryland, passed away on Wednesday, April 1, 2020. Born on December 6, 1964 in Norristown, Pennsylvania, he was the son of Taylor J. Ogdin & Sara (Sally) Boorse Barrett.

Growing up, Taylor attended St. Patrick's School. There, he ran track and spent time with many neighborhood friends. Taylor then went on to Bishop Kenrick High School, graduating in 1983. Taylor enjoyed automotive work and had an affinity for sports cars and motorcycles. He also enjoyed spending time fishing whenever he had the opportunity. He was an animal-lover, and especially loved his German Shepherd, Abby. But most of all, he cherished the time he was able to spend with his family. Taylor was a loving son, father, brother, and dear friend, always willing to help anyone. He will be missed by many.

In addition to his parents, Taylor is survived by his daughter, Olivia P. Ogdin; three sisters, Jennifer B. Ogdin Kennedy, Tiffany A. Ogdin Garshak, and Sara F. Sirchie Cooper; one brother, Andrew J. Ogdin, aunt Nancy E. Boorse Barnes, uncles Robert L. Barnes, Sr. and Gerald L. Boorse, Jr., and many loving nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Services for Taylor will be held at a later date with times to be announced; please feel free to check back for any updated obituary and service information. Contributions may be made in memory of Taylor E. Ogdin to Pope John Paul II High School, 181 Rittenhouse Rd. Royersford PA, 19468. Condolences may be made by visiting www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com. Arrangements are being handled by the Campbell Ennis Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc., Phoenixville, Pennsylvania

“ I'm delayed to this sad news. Taylor was one of the kindest and most genuine people I have ever met. He was a regular customer of mine for a year and some change before he started working swing shifts and working many hours. He talked about his wife and family all the time. He would make me laugh with his honesty in just about everything. I'm so sorry for your families loss.

“ I am so saddened to hear of Taylor’s passing. We worked together at Bell Atlantic in the early nineties. He was a dear friend and truly one of the nicest guys. I have so many good memories from working together, happy hours and he faithfully came to my house for his haircuts up until he left the company. We were there in happy times and sad times. Every year I watch Christmas Story both of our favorites I can still hear him quote the movie line for line! RIP my friend. My deepest sympathy to the family.

Among the hundreds of kids I encountered when I was a teacher, I remember Taylor as a sensitive kid who was quiet, tough as nails, and a joy to teach and coach. I was always impressed by his sincerity and integrity. I am sad for our loss, but happy that he may now rest in peace.

“ I am so sad and somber to hear of the passing of Taylor. I went to Bishop Kenrick with Taylor back in the '80s. He was kind, gentle, and one who always stood up for what was right. I think of him and the quote, "People seldom remember what you said; what they remember is how you made them feel." That is what I thought about today when remembering him at Kenrick. He was a kind young man who always made your feel cared for. I am so very sorry for your loss. I will keep you and Taylor in my prayers.

“ How do I express what your passing has done to my heart? You were part of my life for so many years and there wasn't a time you stopped telling me you loved me. Quite a gift for a stepmother to receive. My sadness pales in comparison to that of your mom and dad. Know you were loved always. When you see MomMom and PopPop Smith tell them hi from me. I know they will welcome you with open arms.

God bless you and keep you,

Barb

What a beautiful photo filled with love. My most sincere sympathies to his lovely daughter, Olivia. And to his wife, Lisa. I cant imagine how difficult this untimely loss is for you both. Losing a father or husband. His love for Olivia and Lisa will live on forever.

Condolences to his entire family. He was a son, a brother, a father, a husband, a Cousin, an Uncle and a friend to many. Embrace and cherish all the wonderful memories ALL HIS FAMILY HAS of a kind, gentle soul.

Rest East, Taylor
