“ Dear Terry,

It is difficult to express my true feelings of sorrow. After knowing you for 20 year, you have ALWAYS come through for me as an employee and friend. I will miss you very much and hope that you are now looking down on us with Terry and Meghan, making sure we do the right things. I am especially thinking of Eric and Amanda. They have suffered the loss of a sister, mother and now, a father. Peace be with them as they go through this additional time of grief.

We have laughed together more times than I can remember. It was always a great time to see you stopping in the office to pick up your schedule for the day. I knew there was going to be laughter along with serious business discussion.

My dear friend, I will miss you so much. You have enhanced my life more than you can ever imagine. I will never forget all of the times we shared together.

In love and peace,
