“ I think it's fair to say that Tom forged his own path in life and found ways to make the most of his time here on earth. Seems as though the good Lord tried to call him home 10-15 years ago but he found a way around that too! He was charming and funny and had a wealth of experiences and stories to share. Though admittedly not perfect and a bit rough around the edges at times, he surely had a soft spot that I will always remember him for...his love and enjoyment of his grandchildren. God bless you Poppy, may you rest in heavenly Peace.
