“ My Uncle Tom was my favorite Uncle. He was a good, hardworking and honest man. He was born, raised and died in the same home. We lived with him and my Grandparents Thomas Sr and Helen (Siipple) Zollers until I was 12 years old. He was a great influence in my life! He had the best sense of humor. I am so glad my husband and I got to visit him in June. I love you my dear Uncle Tom.
Your niece.

I don't know your family personally, but I think we are related through my Paternal Grandmother, Ruth Evans Buckley. Her mother was Elizabeth Zollers, daughter of Thomas Nelson Zollers (1840. - 1881) & Hannah Bare. 1839. - 1901. Remember the name as a child & visiting relatives, They were buried in Oaks. From family tree I have, that would make Thomas, who died in 1881 my great-great grandfather.
