“ My condolences to Denis, Mia, Noah, Mr. & Mrs. Lejeune and the rest of the family.
*I just found out this morning and am very sad and will be praying for you all during this most difficult time. Tina and I were very good friends during high school and my the early years of college. She was a bright, funny, goofy, and very caring individual. We were both winners in the Optimist Oratorical Club. Tina as a representative of Villa Maria, and I as a representative of Malvern Prep. Later we were involved in both Malvern Prep and Villa Maria theatre productions. Tina loved life, brought out the best in those around her, made me and others laugh, and loved those around her deeply. I have many fond memories of Tina but the most profound, was her love of God. She trusted in Christ as her Savior when she was 17 and I know without a doubt that she is in heaven right now with no pain.
What a blessing she has always been.

“ Your family will be in our prayers during this challenging time. Tina was a terrific person. I will miss our pleasant business phone conversations about musicians and bands. Tina being a singer herself, she had a keen insight to the music business and the musicians themselves. She went out of her way to make sure the entertainers were treated well. Thinking of her will always bring a smile to my face. Thank you Tina! We will miss you.
