“ Fond memories of knowing Mrs. Duke (and Mr. Duke) from the Spring-Ford Diner. The love between them was so obvious. May she rest in peace and be forever in the arms of the one she loved!

“ I have many fond memories of Uldene. One as my girl scout leader. I will never forget camping and our "Snipe Hunt" (Uldene was the Snipe!) and singing "Old Rattler". She was a wonderful leader. Linda and I went to school together. We were in the annual Halloween parades in Phoenixville when we were kids. Uldene and my Mother would sew our costumes and we would be dressed identically and always win a prize. I still have two of the dresses in my attic! I also recall great times at Linda's birthday parties where the whole class was always invited. Uldene would make everything great fun. Condolences to Linda and family.
