“ My heart is broken, Valerie was a young Girl I watched grow into a beautiful young woman. She was an operation to all that knew her. She never walked away from a challenge and was great at everything that came her way. I will miss her, and we all must carry on with her memory by loving everyone she has left behind 🥺🏰💗🎈💕🥰🥰

“ Valerie! My lovin twin my other half who had the biggest heart and most beautiful soul. Growing up you were my bestest friend and we still had that special twin bond into adulthood. We have the same laugh and it was like our second language when we were together. You always found the good in people and all situations. I never heard you speak ill of anyone. If there was something you didn't like or something someone did that you didn't like you would always say that's silly or they're silly with a little eye roll. I was and still am so very proud of all your accomplishments. You were so talented at anything you put your mind to. I am blessed to have had so many memories with you that I will forever hold in my heart. I wish we could of had so many more. Only God knows why you have left this Earth. We must learn not to live without you but to live with the love you left behind. I am going to miss you so much but I know one day I will see you again. Rest in Paradise Sis! I love you forever and ever!!!

“ Karen, I wish I could attend services tomorrow, but since I no longer drive and my hubby already had plans, regretfully, I cannot. I'm so sorry you have to mourn your daughter and then soon after, your mother in law, It must be a very stressful time for you. I hope that you can find peace. You will be in my prayers.

“ *Precious mem-'ries, unseen angels, Sent from somewhere to my soul;
How they linger, ever near me, And my bless-ed past unfold.
As I travel on life's pathway, Know not what the years may hold;
As I ponder, hope grows fonder, Precious mem-'ries flood my soul.
Precious mem-'ries, how they linger, How they ever flood my soul;
In the stillness of the midnight, Precious ... PRECIOUS scenes unfold.*

*You will always hold a special place in our hearts Valerie Mitchell!!!
