

Vicki L. Hakun

October 22, 1959 - August 23, 2022

Vicki L. (Pharoah) Hakun, age 62, wife of Kenneth Hakun, of Birchrunville, Pennsylvania, passed away on Tuesday, August 23, 2022 in her residence surrounded by her loving family. Born on October 22, 1959 in Phoenixville, she was the daughter of the late Rosalie (Tartaglia) and Harley E. Pharoah.

Vicki enjoyed traveling, sewing, and was a fantastic cook. She loved living in the country and was well-known within her community. She also liked dining out with family and friends and could be often found enjoying a nice glass of bourbon.

Vicki was a great mother and grandmother. She was affectionate and very loving with children. Having a centrally located home made her the glue that bound the family. She was also creative and artistic, and used those traits to plan events and parties. She loved laughing and hosting game nights with family. And above all, Vicki was always willing to stop whatever she was doing to help anyone. She was a blessing to all she met.

In addition to her loving husband, Vicki is survived by her sons Nicholas E. Hakun and his partner, Mansi Shah, of Philadelphia, Clayton E. Hakun and his wife, Madison Bedell, of Coatesville, her two granddaughters, Wynn and Reese and her niece, Melanie Martin of Birchrunville, and her two sisters, Jacqueline Kidd, of Kennesaw, GA and Christine McGuinness, of Stowe. In addition to her parents, Vicki was preceded in death by a sister: Patricia Engle.
