“ When I was growing up, Ginny was one of my "Moms". I literally grew up in her house. She loved all of us neighborhood kids and kept us pretty much in-line. I'm sure there are a lot of things we "thought" we got away with but in reality, she knew, but didn't feel the need to "bust" us about. I can still hear her yelling to us from the porch... "you kids get the hell home now"...since it was well after dark and we were all supposed to be in. Yeah, it was pretty much a nightly occurrence. So glad for all those memories. Rest easy Mom, I love ya!
