“ When I was in law school, I had the great fortune to live next door to Ginny and her family. She was a great , warm, and caring woman whom I’ve never forgotten. Although after graduation, I never had the chance really to reconnect, she helped me weather the the tough years in school. Her family was equally kind — and I’ve seen that Mike and Nancy have gone on to do great things and create a large family. I’m now almost retired as a lawyer in Virginia with a warm family and grandkids. My sincere condolences to the Trosino family and my best wishes. Mark Moorstein, Prince William County, Virginia.
