“ I was blessed to have him as my father. I was so proud of learning Ukrainian history, reading, writing and speaking the language. I also learned how to make pysanky, paint Ukrainian ceramics, Ukrainian folkdancing, playing mandolin and singing in the junior church choir. My father instilled Ukrainian pride in me and for that, I'm eternally grateful. I miss you, tato. Я люблю вас дуже багато 🇺🇦💙💛🌻🙏🇺🇦

“ My name is Bohdan Bobjak. Walter was my friend and inspiration. I had the pleasure of singing with him for several years. He always kept me in tune. A pleasant man and an absolute pleasure to be with. At church luncheons and other church events we always sat together and enjoyed each others company. He will be missed by many people and I will miss him greatly. At times together we would sing "Vichnaya Paymnyat" for our departed friends from church. Now I am left alone to sing for my dear friend. May God bless him and grant him eternal salvation. Farewell dear friend and thank you for everything.

“ I sang with 'Pan' Kolubinsky in the church choir for years. He had a smooth and strong bass voice, did a solo on one of the songs, and read the Epistle. What are we going to do without his voice?

Condolences to the family.

I grew up with Walter's son Peter. Even as a young boy I loved to here Mr. Kolubinsky talk about his life. He was living history. I could listen to him for hours. I have thought about him recently with the brutal invasion of his beloved Ukraine. A truly great man. Rest in peace.
