“ Barb,

I was so shocked to read this. Although I haven't seen you or Walt in many years, it seems like just last week that we were running around Phoenixville, playing in the band, traveling on school trips. In fact I think this is the first time I've ever referred to him as "Walt." He'll always be "Ziggy" to me. Please accept my deepest and sincerest sympathies and extend them also to those who loved him. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Although, I hadn't seen Walter in years, it was still a shock to see his name listed on the obituary. It brought back memories of his parents & sister; of first Holy Communion at Sts Petet & Paul Ukr Catholic Church; Walt playing a 'melodica'; and, school. I remember him as a quiet kid - one of the good guys.

Such a young guy. RIP Walt. Condolences to the family.
