

Wanda Jane "Jean" Mourar

July 10, 1932 - March 5, 2026

Wanda Jane "Jean" Mourar, age 93, wife of the late Jack M. Mourar, of Barto, PA, passed away on Thursday, March 5, 2026 in the Sanatoga Center, Pottstown, PA. Born on July 10, 1932 in Phoenixville, PA, she was a daughter of the late Stanley and Margaret (Rutter) Dell.

Jean primarily focused on her home and raising her children. She could, however, oftentimes be found building walkways and tending to her gardens, where she found much joy. She spent her youth playing sports and was a talented artist. Family was of the utmost importance to Jean, and she loved taking care of her grandchildren, raising three of them, as well as one great-grandchild. In later years, she turned her affection toward her grand-dogs as well.

Jean was an avid baker and, along with her husband, loved spending time at their cabin in the mountains. She enjoyed sitting by the fire, playing bingo, watching detective shows and especially bird watching. She was a constant presence in helping people in need.

Jean is survived by three children; Jack, husband of the late Judi Bates-Mourar, Vicki, wife of Dale Swartwood, and Debra, wife of Bill Bosch; eleven grandchildren, twenty-one greatgrandchildren, two great-great grandchildren, and many step grandchildren, greatgrandchildren, and great-great grandchildren. In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by one daughter, Donna Chambers; one great-granddaughter, April Heckman; and three siblings, Fay Beard, Shirley Beard, and William Dell.

Funeral services will be held privately at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in her name to the American Macular Degeneration Foundation (<https://www.macular.org/want-to-help/donate>). “ I can remember the days of my youth when I would come over to see Jackie and the girls
Your mom would share goodies she had made
Also eat meals at your house, cause Jean watched us till my Mom got home
I feel for your loss

“ My heart-felt condolences to the Mourar and Dell families, most especially to Jean’s grandchildren with whom I grew up in Warwick. In the 70’s, our generation, Shari, Justine and Keri were my daily playmates, and to this day I feel Justine to be a sister. Jean, was MomMom to the neighborhood. She kept everyone safe, fed, And behaving. She put up with nothing stupid, from Anyone. She gave me my first taste of a PB&J; and we girls learned how to debone a chicken and make fried cutlets with her. We cleaned the bedrooms before we could go to play, raised all manner of bought and found “pets”, and rode snowmobiles in Winter, in the same backyard where the girls tumbled and cartwheeled barefooted through the Summer days . All Jean and Jack’s kids were raised unspoiled, yet carefree & fun, strong and righteous. I talk about the children because I’m now, Jean’s age then, and I value that Jean and Jack’s legacy is their children’s successes, even the ones that are the ability to survive their own great tragedies, or failures. Every family deals with problems and occasionally pretty heavy “stuff”, but Jean taught resilience, and unconditional love By Example, to her family. Rest in peace Jean, and may your family be comforted by Great memories of you. I can still hear your voice calling for the girls to get in for dinner. ;) ~ Respectfully, Kimberley NITTI Peiffer of rural Birdsboro, PA

“ What can I say? Aunt Jean was a gem! If you wanted an opinion just ask her and she would tell you like it is! I loved visiting her at Sanatoga. We would talk and laugh about days gone by and she would always say to me that we should write a book! She kept her sense of humor as long as she could communicate. I miss her dearly already! RIP my dear and special aunt! I love you!❤️
