“ Peg & Wayney. This is really upsetting. He was certainly to vibrant to have lived his last years like he must have done . I can picture him in the barn on a hot day like today helping to put the blacktop down on the aisle but never complained just kept going. Or the parties at your house Peggy remember how Princess (the Germ Shepard) always went wherever Wayney and Shannon went. Them coming to your house filthy and giving them a bath in the tub together. Shannon loved you and Wayne. We all really enjoyed your family so much

“ Wayne gave tremendous opportunities to many very young people, including me, that allowed us to grow professionally, and enjoy responsibilities & experiences that were unforgettable. Wayne had a vibrant mind - always curious, creative and energetic; he was a true entrepreneur. While I hadn't seen him for many years, I thought about him often, and remembered how he made my job enjoyable and fun even while we dealt with difficult circumstances and challenges.

Wayne was a good man who was fortunate enough to have such a devoted and caring family, led by Peggy, who sacrificed so much over the years. I wish them all the best as they enter this next chapter in their lives.

“ Very sad to hear yesterday. I first met Wayne when I was a vendor to Cable AdNet. I recall those early days and Wayne's unique ability to calm even the most heated situations with his warm smile and reassuring wink. A truly genuine and caring person, everyone who worked for Wayne loved him. And, the successes of so many Cable AdNet Alumni are a testament to Wayne's example and to his leadership. He will be greatly missed by all, my most sincere condolences to Peggy and the family.

“ Peg and family,

Very sorry for your loss. Wayne and Bob Bower gave me a start in this business and I owe them for all my success. Right from day one at Cable Adnet Wayne made feel at home. I remember this was my first "real" job! I was spoiled for sure with a leader like Wayne. He was also a good tennis player (I think he let me win).

“ Wayne was not only a pioneer of the cable advertising industry, but a wonderful family man, and person to work with. He gave many young people a chance to succeed in what was a new business at the time, in the early 1980's. God bless Wayne and his family.
