“ Growing up, I don't think there were too many weekend that she was not at my house. The weekends were never long enough. The nights were long and it was always a sleep over. She was like an older sister I could talk to because she was there so much. Some weekends stick out more than others. Like the time Wendy, Jen, and I went apple picking one night. I almost go away with it too if Candy hadn't seen us. Mom got over it after she yelled at dad for letting me go, but it was fun. I still think our water balloon fights were the best. We grew up and most of us had kids. It is a shame we all grow apart so fast. I'll miss you Wendy, but I will always have the memories we shared.

“ My heart is broken. I know everyone's is who loved Wendy. I consider myself very lucky to have known such a strong beautiful woman. I was so privileged to be her friend. I would have missed out on a lot in life had she not qallowed me to tag along beside her. I am so grateful to her. It is so very unfair that we lost her so soon. My deepest sympathy to all who loved her.

“ As I sit here and write these words - the tears continue to fall and I am still in disbelief. Even though we would go months without talking, when we did finally catch up with one another, it was like I had seen you yesterday. I was on my way to say goodbye when I received the call from my mom that god had already taken you - I will never forget the sound of her voice. I am thankful that you didn't suffer long and that you're reunited with your dad and my dad. God sure did receive one WILD angel. Not sure who will keep who in line up there, you're one tough cookie. You were such a good mom and daughter. Della and your mom will miss you greatly - we all will. You touched many and we will never forget you. Love you girl - I will not say goodbye - I will say see you later like we always said, so until then watch over all of us.

Love you always,

Regina, I just heard about Wendy's passing, and I'm so very sorry. I was a client of hers for a few years. I did a photoshoot of her and Della this past November but we never decided on what photos she wanted. When I heard the news last week, I made prints of the photos to give to Della, but I haven't been able to contact anyone. I believe you are the right person to contact? Hopefully you see this post and can contact me. My email is laura@pinkdogphotography.com thank you so much
