

Wendy Margaret Peck

December 21, 1956 - June 13, 2019

Wendy Margaret (Miller) Peck, 62, wife of Shawn Peck, of North Coventry, Pennsylvania, passed away on Thursday, June 13, 2019. Born on December 21, 1956 in Pottstown and raised in Bally, she was a daughter of the late William and Marie Miller.

Wendy had been employed at Bally Ribbon Mills for many years, then ended her career in retail sales at TJ Maxx. She had an eye for colors and patterns which led to her love for clothing styles and sewing. She also enjoyed weaving and knitting, often donating the clothing to local charities. She was a great cook and donated to the charity organization "Food for the Poor". Wendy loved the shore, and in her spare time enjoyed day trips to the beach. She was very giving and generous but her greatest love was for Jesus Christ and her immediate family. She lit up around her grandchildren, and loved giving them gifts and using her God-given talent to make them clothing.

In addition to her husband, Wendy is survived by her children: Hilary, wife of Donald Boscoe and Ian Peck, husband of Caitlin Peck; grandchildren: Reed Boscoe, Caleb Peck and Liana Peck. She is also survived by twelve sisters and two brothers. She was preceded in death by her brother: Randall Miller.
