“ Today, (4/7), I learned of Bills's passing. In looking at the video and the family photos, and although we have never met, and most likely never will, it is heartwarming to know that Bill was so very happy with his wife and children. Back in the day, Bill was a car-hound and belonged to the "Association". Many days and nights spent at Maple Grove Raceway. It was nice to see that Bill never lost his smile or sense of humor. I know the loss and pain in losing a loved one, and it is obvious that Bill's family will miss him every day of your lives. May God Bless each of you and may God hold Bill in his arms for eternity and at peace. With Sympathy for your loss...

“ Dear Eggeling Family- The news that my cousin Bill had passed was received with surprise and sadness. Although we had only spent time together in the earlier part of our lives, I'll remember him as one with a passion for cars and model building, and a deep love for family. He will be missed.

“ Dear Claire and Family. Words cannot begin to express our sympathy to all of you. Bill was such a great guy to be around. Since we meet all of you through Duquesne University .It was a pleasure to share time with you. From the dorm rooms to the apartment then moving them all in to the house . We had some fun together. Along with daughter parent dinners. I was truly shocked when low and behold I walked in to my 50th surprise party and of all the people their to yell surprise i seen Bill standing so proud behind my bar .I was so touched that Bill and Lauren made the trip in to be there for my Birthday. What a guy he was. Bill we will miss you. May your soul rest in peace with the Lord. Our Love and Prayers are with you today and always. Much Love to all of you.... “ Dear Claire Eggeling, I noticed through newspaper obituaries that your family has just suffered the loss of your beloved husband Bill, on Feb. 12,2011. This is surely a time of great sadness when comfort is greatly needed. While we are not personally acquainted, I wanted to offer my condolences. You see, I lost my Mother this past December 27, 2010 and I received such an outpouring of support-even from total strangers, and I resolved that if given the opportunity to reach out and offer a word of comfort to someone else I would not let the opportunity pass. I have found many Bible passages to be a strengthening aid during times of distree such as you are facing now. One such text I wanted to leave you are Jesus' words recorded at John 5:28,29 "Do not marvel at this,because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Jesus' promise of the resurrection of those now "at rest" gives us a hope for the future. What a time it will be, what a grand reunion! A time when tears of sorrow are replaced with tears of joy. May these words sustain you in the days and months to come. With Heartfelt Sympathy' Mrs. Jones

“ We never met Bill but we know his son David. David is an outstanding young man who always spoke very highly of his father. He told us many times that he and his father enjoyed working on cars together, especially the Mustang. We are sure that David's high character is the direct result of his father's love and guidance. “ To the Family, We are always saddened by the passing of our dear loved one. The time we have with them is never enough. Please keep in your hearts and minds the wonderful joy and happiness they brought to your lives. Even though it is hard for us to imagine the void in our lives be assured of this period as resting time for them. Hope is given to us through the scriptures that this enemy called "Death" will soon be done away with. (1 Cor. 15:26) Not only will death be no more, neither will sickness, pain and sorrow be anymore. (Rev. 21:3-4) God has said "He is making all things new". My prayers are with you all.
