

William Howe

February 17, 1944 - October 16, 2007

William F. Howe, Jr. age 63, formerly of Spring City, passed away at St. Francis Hospital, Evanston, IL.? He had been a resident of the Lakefront Healthcare Center in Chicago.?

Born in Phoenixville, he was a son of the late William Howe Sr. and Marian (Conway), widow of the late Robert O'Connor.

??????? He is survived by a brother Gregory, of Norristown, an aunt Theresa Rollins, of Beverly, MA, locally an Aunt, Betty Conway and cousins, Brenda Hixon and Tina?Lightcap, all of Royersford as well as many extended family members.? His funeral service will be held on Monday at 10:30 AM at? Limerick Garden of Memories, 44 Swamp Pike, Limerick, PA 19468.?? Arrangements are by the Cattermole-Klotzbach Funeral Home of Royersford.

Tribute Wall

MR

“ Sorry to hear of Butch's passing. I never had the pleasure of meeting cousin Butch but have heard some nice stories about him from my mom Theresa Conway Rollins. I am sure marion was waiting for him.

Mike Rollins

Mike Rollins - rockafeller@comcast.net - July 19, 2013 at 08:39 AM

KR

“ Greg I'm very sorry to hear about Butch's passing. One of the best memories of him was when we went to a Phillies/Cubs game. We sat in the upper deck. We were with Bob O'Connor. They came around with a camara and caught Butch sound a sleep and put him on the jumbo tron in center field. We all had a good laugh. My best wishes to you and you're family.

Ken Rollins - July 19, 2013 at 08:39 AM

JC

“ I was sorry to hear of Cousin Butch's passing. As my brother said I am sure Marion was waiting for him. She loved him very much.

Julie Walton
Coyote157@aol.com

Julie (Rollins) Walton - Coyote157@aol.com - July 19, 2013 at 08:39 AM