

William McCann

April 12, 1951 - December 29, 2012

William F. McCann was born on April 12, 1951 in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia, PA and died peacefully at home on December 29, 2012, in Phoenixville, PA. He enjoyed living in Phoenixville, which was his hometown for more than 40 years. He loved old movies, working in the garden, and all Philadelphia sports, particularly the Phillies. He loved all animals, and enjoyed feeding and watching the birds. He was most especially devoted to his tiger cat, Mia, and the cats he's had over the years, all brown tabbies. He is survived by his beloved mother, Helen Gehret, his sisters Barbara and her husband Joe Calozzo, Helene and her husband Kenneth Terne, his brother Joseph and his wife Anne McCann, his aunts Mildred Seckel and Mimi Eckerline, and many nieces and nephews and their families. Relatives and friends are invited to attend a visitation at the Campbell-Ennis-Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc., Main Street at Fifth Avenue, Phoenixville on Saturday, January 5, 2012 from 10:30-12:00 PM. Donations may be made in Billy's memory to the Delaware Humane Association, 701 A Street, Wilmington, DE 19801, where he adopted his cat, Mia, in 2000.

“ My deepest condolences and heartfelt sympathies to the family. It is never easy to deal with the loss of a loved one. May you find comfort in prayer, and the Bible promises that "Jehovah God will sustain you."-Psalm 55:22. The Bible reassures us at Psalm 37:29 that we will see our loved ones again. I have found John 5:28&29 to be most comforting to me. I hope you will find that to be true for you as well. Yes, the Bible promises us that our loved ones will live again, here on a restored paradise earth! May we do all that we can to be there to greet our loved ones upon their return. The Bible tells us how. I encourage you to investigate Jehovah God's true promises for us all. Respectfully submitted, Denise Brown neiceybrown-mail@yahoo.com www.jw.org
