“ Bill was a good friend and mentor to me for 23 years. His enthusiasm, wit, kindness and charm never ceased to amaze and inspire me, as it did many many others. We were all better for knowing him. I look forward to sharing eternity with him. Hopefully he's saved me a seat!

“ I can't remember a day when Bill was not smiling and greeting everyone with his unique words of encouragement. It was obvious that he was a man who served the Lord, and was committed to being an example of love and to all he encountered. I miss his warmth, big smile, and great sense of humor.

“ There are few who live 'in view of God's mercies' (Romans 12:1 ... understanding God's great love for us) like Bill. He passed on the love and joy of our Lord to all with whom he came in contact. A terrific testimony! Love to the whole crew, Jim Shackleton
